CIRCUS TENT COLLAPSES

June 19 - Saratoga Springs, NY - The big top of Hoxie Bros. Circus collapsed on a crowd of approximately 300 people during a sudden thunderstorm, briefly trapping them inside and injuring 28. Most of the injuries were minor, officials reported.

The circus goes, including two groups of mentally retarded people, were still in the tent at 5:30 p.m. after the performance because of a heavy rain when an announcer told them to leave immediately, witnesses said.

"Heavy winds, without warning, made the tent mushroom up, then fall over," said Dennis Bryant, president of the Saratoga Springs Jaycees, which sponsored the circus.

PEOPLE

RUSS and JUDY BRYAN visited Roberts Bros. Circus at Harlenburg, Pa., on June 10 where they had a chance to spend some time with Mrs. Earl and Joe Myers.

DANNY DANIELS, comic-juggler, Organist will again play the Michigan State Fair in Detroit, Aug. 28-Sept. 7, for the third consecutive year as Musical Director for Grace McIntosh and her Circus Internationale. And for the records, I am not the same Danny Daniels that was mentioned in the Circus Report playing organ for Bill Garden's Show Time Follies. I believe he used the name as Danny 'Tex' Daniels. He is a fine artist with a very good show.

SHOW NEW NOTES

BY RICHARD C. JOHNSON

Eddie Schmitt and his tiger act are playing at Parc Safari near Montreal, Canada until Sept. He is using 12 tigers in the act at the park. This is an exciting act to watch.

The Rainos Duo (Ron and Pam Perry) slack wire act presents tricks on the slack wire unmatched in the circus world today. I saw them perform with the Coronas Circus in Jackson, Miss. The Rainos Duo is going one step beyond by introducing a tandem wire rigging - not one but two wires, one wire above the other with Ron and Pam performing at the same time. They were on the Coronas Circus, then to Gaslight Village and on tour with Circo Atayde.

The Horton Wonder Bears presented by Rex Bronson Horton and Mark Bronson Horton have a great act. The performance consisted of black Himalaya bears - an act you do not want to miss. The bears perform foot juggling, bicycle riding, motorcycle riding and roller skating. Yes, you can believe roller skating bears. The act is fast and very professionally presented. Rex Horton is an outstanding bear trainer. They have been performing with the Coronas Circus.

El Gran Mar (Mark Bronson Horton) has a high wire act that amazes and entertains audiences with his intricate moves - a very good act and he is also appearing with the Coronas Circus.

Sebastian Adriani is ringmaster on the Coronas Circus. Sebastian's appearance enhances the show.

Flippo and Chryssi (Phil Kavanaugh and Rose-Marie Douglass) appeared with the Big John Strong Circus at the CFA Convention in Scottsdale, Ariz., Their clown stilt walking and juggling were excellent.

Jorge Barreda and his lion act is in Mexico playing with Circus Odyssey.

PEOPLE

ED PHILLIPS and PENNY JORDAN, of Wilmington, Del., will be married in the center ring of the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus at Reading, Pa., on Aug. 3rd.

CIRCUS ON AUCTION BLOCK

(by Diane Holm of the Sarasota (Fla) Journal of July 13, 1981).

Always wanted to run off and join the circus?

Well, now's your chance and you don't even have to leave town. Get your act together and grab some cash, because on July 28 a circus is going to be put on the auction block.

The 20 year old Stebbing Royal European Circus is being offered for sale, along with all its carnival rides and attractions, animals and props. It features four trained elephants Opal 30, Louie 14, Kay 12 and Mike 7. There is also a pony ride, Shetland ponies, a Royal Bengal tiger, baboons, lions and chimps.

Rounding out the package are heavy moving equipment, wooden bleachers, a red and white canvas round top, a moon walk ride, cotton candy machine and two ring curbs to frame the acts.

Auction competition for the Sarasota-based circus is not expected to be fierce. In fact, the attorney representing its owners, Henry P. Trawick, Jr., said, "It probably won't take more than an hour, probably only 10 minutes. There usually aren't many bidders."

The circus was legally forfeited to its lien holders, A. L. Sainer and John C. Patterson, on July 6 for non-payment of its mortgage. Trawick said the circus and its three associate companies, Majestic Leasing Corp., Jubilee Attractions, Inc., and Tower Leasing Corp., are being sold to try to repay the lien holders.

Security agreements, personal property and stock certificates will be offered "piece by piece first," said Trawick, then as a whole. Whichever offer promises the greatest amount of money will be accepted, as long as it's satisfactory to the owner, he said.

The lien foreclosure, which went uncontested in court by former circus owners Bill Stebbing, John Stebbing and Carol Cosby Seay, was valued at $186,771. Attorney William Lowe of Bradenton represented the Stebbings and Ms. Seay.

The circus is rumored to be performing currently in Venezuela. It is not known whether it will be back in town for the auction.

Trawick said the property would be sold July 28, regardless of the company's whereabouts. Gaining possession of whatever parcel of the circus or the whole, one purchases on the 28th is the buyer's concern, he said.

The Stebbing Royal European Circus has performed around the world and on television nine months of the year since 1961. It's home base is a 3.5 acre tract at 44th Street, west of Lockwood Ridge Road.

NEWS FROM ILLINOIS

BY ALLAN BABCOCK

Well, Circus Vargas has come and gone from our area. I went to Springfield, July 7, to see the top go up and visit. They came in from Sioux City, Iowa, which is a 500 mile jump. They started putting the top into the air at about 9:30.

Some of the visitors on the lot were Father John Callahan, Norman Schuler, Fran Hunt, Charles and Agnes Hill and Bill and Eddie Backstein.

Circus Vargas gave six performances here in Springfield (July 7-9), seven performances in Champaign (July 10-12) and four performances in Decatur (July 13-14).

There was a big crowd at the fair grounds in Decatur where the show was set up. The weather was hot and humid throughout the area, except for one day.

My wife and I went to the 8 p.m. show on Tuesday and that show had a large crowd, unfortunately a storm came up during the show, just as the spec was getting ready to come in. The spec was cancelled and there was a short intermission, with acts after intermission shortened in order to get the show over in a hurry.

There was a lot of lightning and rain and then the wind came up just as the show was ending. The people were rushed out of the tent into the heavy rain and workers immediately planned to drop the tent.

We watched from a nearby building until the rain let up enough to get to the car and the wind grew even stronger but the tent held.

Lee and Kathy Merritt were also in the audience and we talked a bit during intermission and after the show. They will be with the R. J. Kelroy & Associates produced circus at the Illinois State Fair, Aug. 6-16.

This was the first time that Circus Vargas played Springfield and Champaign, as far as I know. They were here in Decatur in Oct. of '73 and '74 on real cold days with no big top.

The program included:

Wade Burck, cat act; Aerial Ballet (web) with 6 girls; Clowns, Popeye (Dale Longmire, Billy McCabe, Bruce Warner, George Clyatt); Rola Bola, Manuel Gonzales; Aris Bros., knock-about; Rola bola, Pat Davidson; Dressage in three rings by Henri Wageneur, Darlene Williams, Kathy Batchelor; Trapeze, The Franconi Duo; Vince Carmen, illusions; Clowns with Chicken and Cannon and Camera gag; Henri Wageneur, camels; Cemon's Chimps; Michael Wageneur, llamas; Zizi and Carolina, contortion acts; Juggling by Los Ortinas, Osmanis, Pat Davidson; Spec; Intermission.

The Espanas flying acts; Clowns with the Steam Table; Dog acts presented by Vanessa, Luciana, Darlene; Armon Duo and Bill and Donna Bannister, aerial cradle acts; the Circus Liberty Horses; Aris, wire; Victor, wire; Anastansini Bros., risley; Elephants presented by Rex Williams and Ava, plus Ted and David.

Other acts included the horse General Vargas and Donna Bannister doing a slide for life. The girls in the aerial ballet are Diane Paray, Vanessa Thomas, Darlene Dickie, Tracy Mayo, Ingrid Osmani and Vallery.

in the NEWSELEPHANTS MUST GO . . .

(A UPI release dated July 8th, from Nairobi, Kenya).

Randall Moore has a jumbo sized problem. Two, in fact, they are called Durga and Owalla.

They are two 17 year old cow elephants, born in Africa but raised and domesticated in the United States, where they lived for 13 years.

Nine months ago, Moore, 30, a biologist from Portland, Ore., shipped them with a bull elephant named Tschombai from Brooklyn, N.Y., to Mombasa, Kenya.

The idea was to see if the female elephants could adapt over a carefully controlled two year period to living wild in their native African bush.

Tschombai died last March after drinking contaminated water.

Now Kenya says the two female elephants have to go. The authorities gave Moore until Saturday (July 11).

Why do the elephants have to leave? "Kenya is a tourist country," said John Ochoki, assistant wildlife director. "We offer a certain package and it involves wild animals. We are not very interested in zoo elephants or circus elephants."

BURR'S FUN-O-RAMA

BY KEVIN MENARD

Billy Burr's Fun-O-Rama carnival's 350,000 watt power plant was completely destroyed by fire at 9 p.m. on July 3rd at Fall River, Mass.

It was believed that the unit overheated. The fire dept. was slow in responding and even though valiant efforts by the 'Carny's' and Mr. Burr himself were made, the power plant was completely destroyed.

Before the fire was out Mr. Burr's driver, Lou, was on his way to Mansfield, Mass., to get the spare generator.

By 11 p.m. the spare was hooked up and the carnival was lighted again. Lou was stricken after his trip and was given oxygen and first aid, then rushed to the hospital.

Burr says "nothing stops us" tomorrow it will be fun and business as usual.

U. S. TAKES CIRCUS FOR GRANTED

(By Susan Lindee - from the San Antonio, Texas, Express).

You probably didn't know it, but circuses - those traveling parades of elephants, trick riders and magicians - influenced war, advertising and animal conservation.

You might have gone on considerably longer without knowing it, except a staff from Our Lady of the Lake University has just received a $115,149 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to tell you about it.

The grant, announced in Washington, by U. S. Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez, provides salaries and operating funds for a year long public information drive, which will include lectures, cable television programs and seminars detailing the influence of the circus on life in San Antonio and beyond.

The lectures will coincide with the appearance of the Ringling-Barnum Circus in San Antonio this year and will be prepared with the help of Betty King, curator of the San Antonio Hertzberg Circus Collection - the nation's largest.

"The circus educated the people - the exotic animals it presented were often the first such animals people saw. Circuses were also the first to use billboard advertising to attract spectators and many of the lithograph companies that are around today were formed to create circus posters," King said.

She said an early tour by Barnum & Bailey became a model for military relocations. Governments learned from the circus how best to mobilize large numbers of people and animals.

"They conquered the logistics of feeding and moving large numbers of people," said King.

The program will be organized by Our Lady of the Lake's Institute for Intercultural Studies and Research.

The program will be aimed at adults and is to include oral histories from people who worked with the circus in San Antonio. The main point is to bring the Hertzberg collection out into the community to increase public understanding.

SPECIAL

SHE'S A WINNER

Lori Miles, formerly Lorilini the clown, won the prestigious state talent award in the Miss New Jersey Scholarship beauty pageant. Several of the New Jersey newspapers, including the Atlantic City press, gave her front page coverage. She played a classical piano exercise piece by Moszkowsky, a Russian composer entitled, "Etude de Virtuosity in G Minor."

Of the 25 county pageant winners who competed, Lori wound up as 4th runner-up in the Miss New Jersey finals on July 4th.

Her father, author Austin Miles (The Real Ringmaster) could not attend the event as he was busy ringmastering Circus Maranatha at the PTL Club in Charlotte, NC.

PEOPLE

MICKY HADES, of Calgary, Alberta, reports he still has the Raveen show which is for sale. Raveen is presently appearing in England and on his return hopes to sell off the huge magic and illusion show.

DON SANDMAN recently visited with the TNT Circus, followed by the CMB Convention in Baltimore, a visit to Roberts Bros. and soon he'll catch Hoxie Bros. Circus.

RON URBAN has his ice show at the Gaslight Village in New York state for the summer season.

BILL KARLTON, head of Karlton Productions, recently played a date at a Magicians Convention in Tennessee.

BILL HALL, DOUGLAS MAC-VALLEY and JOEY JORDAN visited the Ringling show at Philadelphia earlier this season.

The project staff will include Dr. Susan Freiband of Our Lady of the Lake's Institute, a scriptwriter, a producer, researchers and media liaison. The group has a full calendar year to produce from 4 to 10 video programs and lecture programs in various branch libraries around the city.

MAGIC LIMITED - LLOYD E. JONES - 4064 39TH AVE., OAKLAND, CA. 94619

BY LLOYD E. JONES

Have been much too busy here of late to get any writing done. Our 'Thayer Quality Magic Instruction Sheets, Vol. 4' is in and we are busy mailing them out to customers. This volume has been described as being 'as good as the Tarbell Course.'

Vol. 4 now completes the series and Vol. 1 is being reprinted, thus ensuring a complete set for those who want it. Vol. 1 and 2 sell for $20.00; Vol. 3 is $22.50 and Vol. 4 has been priced at $25.00, plus .86c postage.

The set gives you over a thousand instruction sheets of magic's quality dealer from the Golden Age of Magic. Vol. 4 also includes an index for the complete series, both subject and alphabetical and some reminiscences by John Zweers and Glenn Gravatt. Your nearby dealer should have copies available.

Then too, we had a 'beeg' show and the evening of magic was called 'better than the convention shows.' Featured were Pete Biro, MC, Terry Seabrooke, Lee Gabel, Paul Burleson, Ken Carter (vent), Bill Madden with children's magic and Cotton Candy (Bill Williams) with clowning.

Many said there would only be a poor attendance but Oakland (Calif) really packed them in and even made a profit.

Stan Kramien played Novato, July 10 and Marin, July 14th. Had some new faces assisting, with the same great show, plus.

Phil Temple headlined a two performance show in Marin on July 26th. He appeared in the show with Skiles and Henderson and Glen Yarborough.

The Newport Beach (Calif) Magic Island exclusive club is scheduled to open Aug. 14th. Membership has reached the 2000 mark according to Tom Hannigan the sales manager. Membership is $750.00 and is already sold out, while Silver Memberships cost $1,450, which includes the first year's dues free. There is also talk about opening a similar club in Houston. Harry Blackstone, Jr. will be the opening performer there.

MAILBAG

FROM ED PORTER

I just want to pass along a few good comments about the people with Hoxie Bros. Circus. Every one does a good job and this is one of the best shows on the road and my hat is off to them.

The band is great, and Gary Holveck is a fine ringmaster who knows how to keep it all going smoothly.

Also, John Lewis deserves a great deal of credit for his work and friendliness to all visitors and everyone on the lot.
